This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: first species through thirteenth species described in the specification as the first through thirteenth embodiments (commencing on page 19, line 12, with the first embodiment and extending through page 49, line 10, with the thirteenth embodiment) and an in-determinant number of un-illustrated variants of the above thirteen species, described, for example, commencing on page 25, line 26 and again commencing on page 34, line 11. The species are independent or distinct because they have mutually exclusive constructions that are extremely burdensome to ferret out in the limited time allotted for examination. PTO Director Dudas has recognized and acknowledged this problem and proposed rule changes to severely restrict the number of claims examined in any particular application.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, the examiner is unsure if any claims are generic. In the event one of the in-determinant number of un-illustrated variants of the above thirteen species is elected a proposed drawing correction will be required to show it in response to this action. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
